

Spouse Employment

The Employment Assistance program is designed to provide information and employability skills training for military spouses to enable them to enter or re-enter the job market. The program actively seeks to help spouses prepare for, locate, and obtain employment in addition to providing long and short term career counseling. You can begin your employment search at your new location by starting here at Yokota. There is an Employment Assistance program at all Airman and Family Readiness Center's Air Force wide and your information can be forwarded from Yokota before you arrive to expedite your job search

The Employment Assistance program maintains local, regional and federal job listings and can help prepare you for a new job at your next assignment.

Services available through the Employment Assistance program:

- Job referrals to full and part-time employment
- Information about educational opportunities
- Assistance with resumes and job applications and interviewing skills
- Individual guidance with career decisions
- Resource library with information on topics such as careers, women in the workforce, interviewing, resumes, financial assistance for education, and how to start a home-based business.

Workshops are offered at various times throughout the year to assist with career development. Some of these include: Resume Writing, Interviewing Skills, and Federal Employment workshops.

Contact the Airman and Family Readiness Center at 225-8725.
